Mr. Hazard had before him this morning at the Magistracy fourteen men who were charged with gambling at 145 Second Street. Inspector Dymond said that gambling had been going on in the house for some time. The first and second defendants were fined $50 or two months' each for keeping the gambling house, and the remainder were fined $3 each or seven days.

A report was made to the police yesterday that a gold ring and a jacket had been taken from No. 20 Nathan Road, Kowloon. Lance-Sergeant Willis made inquiries, and on making a search of the rear of No. 18 Nathan Road he found two pawn tickets relating to the missing property. A Chinese was arrested later, and the ring was recovered from a pawnshop. A reward was offered by Mr. Milbourne when the man who was arrested was charged at the Magistracy to-day.

INTIMATIONS

"A Good Tonic for Anybody who is Run Down."

Dear Sirs,—My doctor ordered me to take Angier's Emulsion for dyspepsia and nervous affections, and I am very pleased to say that it has done me an immense amount of good. I have been ill for two years, but I feel I am getting stronger every day—less indigestion, eating better, and sleeping better. My bowels used to be very much constipated, but since I began taking Angier's Emulsion they have been acting regularly every morning. I like the Emulsion so much that I feel I cannot take enough of it, and often wish the doctor would order a tablespoonful instead of a dessertspoonful. I can highly recommend Angier's Emulsion as a very good tonic for anybody who is run down.

(Signed) (Mrs.) M. LEWIS.

ANGIER'S EMULSION

BOTH SOOTHING AND STRENGTHENING.

The soothing, healing and strengthening properties of Angier's Emulsion make it invaluable in lung troubles, digestive and bowel disorders, run-down conditions and all wasting diseases. It soothes the mucous membrane of the stomach and intestines, corrects digestive disturbance and promotes normal action of the bowels. At the same time it has a most invigorating tonic influence upon the general health. For upwards of twenty years Angier's Emulsion has been prescribed by the medical profession and used in the hospitals. It is a standard remedy of proved value.

88th Co. R.G.A. v. Left Half D.C.L.I.

This United Service League game was played on the Hongkong Club ground yesterday.

Teams:—88th Co. R.G.A.—Morse; Woods, Sandford; Yound, Court, Buckland; Draper, Burt, Riddle, Cooper; Mella. Left Half D.C.L.I.—Fitzgerald; Childs, Drow, Richardson, Withers; Linton; Weeks; Gordon, Bailey, Newbold, Williams. Referee—Sergeant Wilson.

Bailey kicked off for the Cornwallis, the gunners having more of the game in the early stages. Mella was the first to try a scoring effort, just missing with a nice drive. Draper was in fine form on the gunners right and was repeatedly dangerous, putting over some fine centres. Drow, however, disposed of most of these and was in fine fettle at back, and after Court had missed a centre by Draper, the Cornwallis took up the attack and Withers was a little wide with a good effort. Newbold and Bailey were working through the defence when pulled up by Woods and at the interval the score was:—

On resuming, Court and Riddle changed places, the gunners showing more dash in their attack. Within a few minutes of the restart, Court gave a pass to Burt who scored with a good shot, putting the gunners in front. The Cornwallis took up the running and Woods should have equalised, for having only the goal to beat he shot weakly by. With the gunners attacking again, Draper centred and a defender mistaking, Court had no difficulty in adding the gunners second goal. The Cornwallis tried hard to reduce the lead but failed to make any impression on the gunners defence and time arrived with the result:—

88th Co. R.G.A. v. Right Half D.C.L.I.

The gunners turned out on the Military ground yesterday for this United Service League match with practically a reserve team:—

Teams:—88th Co. R.G.A.—Backhouse; Colmer, White; Schafer, Stevenson, Boreford; Green, Crane, Francis, Perry, Marle. Right Half D.C.L.I.—Olley; Gill, Fife; List, Holmes, Passmore; Moseley, Cummers, Baddows, T. Smith, G. Smith. Referee—Mr. Moss.

Early play favoured the Cornwallis, Backhouse being quickly called upon to save shots from Moseley, Outmore and T. Smith in quick succession. The Cornwallis did all the pressing except for an occasional breakaway by the gunners. White relieved and Crane and Marle put the gunners on their first attack, and Marle receiving from Crane opened the scoring from 20 yards range. The Cornwallis were quickly on the attack again and a fine shot by Outmore left the gunners goalkeepers helpless, equalising the scores. Another breakaway by the gunners ended in Crane scoring a fine goal and after having nearly all the game the Cornwallis were behind at the interval with the score:—

Right Half D.C.L.I. 1

In the second half play again favoured the Cornwallis but they were unable to beat the gunners defence although T. Smith and Baddows made fine efforts. Francis and Crane broke away for the gunners and from a pass by Marle, Crane increased the lead, and from the kick off, Crane broke through to score the fourth goal for the gunners. This was very disheartening for the Cornwallis who were the better team but they again resumed the attack and Baddows struck the upright with a fine drive. Moseley ran through finely and Backhouse just managed to save the wingers shot but Outmore running up netted. The remaining play was in favour of the Cornwallis but they were unable to add to their score and time arrived with the result:—

"WATTIE."

In the House of Commons last month Mr Lawson (Tower Hamlets, Mill-end, Opp.) asked the Postmaster-General whether his attention has been drawn to the Postal and Telegraphic Conference now sitting at Tokyo; whether he was aware of the disproportion between the telegraphic rates between Great Britain and North China and Japan and the new rates to Hongkong; and whether he would make representations in favour of lower rates for Press and general messages to the Great Northern Telegraph Company and the Eastern Extension Telegraph Company. Mr Herbert Samuel (Postmaster General),—My attention has been drawn to the conference in question, and I am glad to know that one of its results is likely to be a substantial reduction in the rates for ordinary and Press telegrams between this country and China and Japan. (Hear, hear.)

Hongkong Police v. St. Joseph's College.

These team lined up on the Hongkong Club ground yesterday, both in the running for the Second Division League Championship. Opening play was in favour of the Police but the College defenders were in fine form. Play was fast and exciting and midway through the first half Reynolds following up, beat Khan the College goalie in a race for the ball and opened the scoring. At the interval the Police led by a goal to nil. In the second half play was keen, Wilson centred from near the touch line and Clarke missed with an open goal but Reynolds racing up added the second goal for the Police. The College now attacked in earnest and fairly hemmed the Police in. Swann made some fine saves in the Police goal but was ultimately beaten by Goldenberg. Play till the end, and favoured the College but they were unable to score again and retired dejected with the result:—

AILMENTS OF THE THROAT.

Their Cure and Prevention.

UNDER the existing climatic conditions, throat ailments are becoming prevalent. Among the most frequent are simple sore throat, tonsillitis and ulcerated sore throat.

These affections are due to germs which have been inhaled by the sufferer and have multiplied in his throat, overcoming his powers of resistance to them, because his vitality has been lowered by over-exertion, worry or illness, etc.

Whatever the throat complaint, it is of the utmost importance that it should be checked as rapidly as possible, that the sufferer may be prevented from getting any of the serious germ diseases—like diphtheria—which begin with sore throat.

To cure any complaint, the cause must first be removed. In throat diseases, the cause is the presence of the germs in the throat. It is, therefore, essential that they must be destroyed.

Until a few years ago, gargles were universally used for the purpose. Now, this treatment is known to be useless, for as a specialist has written in The Lancet:—"Gargles are best avoided, especially when the parts are inflamed," for they cannot reach the germs in the more distant parts of the throat.

What Doctors Say.

Now, every doctor employs Wulff's Formant for the purpose. Wulff's Formant is a pleasant-tasting, germ-killing throat lozenge to cure all forms of sore throat. Thousands of doctors have endorsed this preparation in the highest possible terms. One of them writes in The Practitioner:—"Having tried all the British well-known proprietary antiseptic lozenges, I have become reduced to one, and one only (for sore throat), namely, Wulff's Formant."

It is so powerful, that a distinguished scientist once mixed a little Formant with water and added it to the virulent germs taken from the throat of a patient dangerously ill with diphtheria. The germs were all killed within ten minutes. This suggested the use of Wulff's Formant for curing sore throat, and preventing it and germ diseases. It is now constantly used for these purposes.

Numbers of distinguished people have testified to the efficacy of Wulff's Formant for curing sore throats.

The Rt. Hon. Viscount Massereene and Ferrard writes:—"I have found Wulff's Formant most effective for the cure of sore throat, which quickly disappears after using a few tablets."

The Rt. Hon. Lord Glanville writes:—"I have been using Wulff's Formant for sore throat with most satisfactory results."

The Rt. Hon. Lord Kingsland writes:—"I and my family use quite a number of Wulff's Formant tablets, and find them all you say they are. I always carry a goodly number in my pocket, and have recommended them to many friends."

Lord Sherbrooke writes that he "finds Wulff's Formant very useful in all affections of the throat, and the facility with which it can be carried about in the pocket gives it a decided advantage over gargles."

Statements like these, made by such distinguished men, must convince everyone of the supreme value of Wulff's Formant for curing sore throat.

Wulff's Formant may be obtained of all Chemists, in bottles of fifty tablets. Its success has caused many imitations to be put on the market. Do not be deceived by any statements that they are "just as good." They are not. You count possible disaster and certain disappointment if you rely on these to cure your sore throat or to prevent germ diseases. A physician has written that he "has tried six substitutes and found not one of them efficacious."

Insist therefore, on getting the genuine Wulff's Formant. Write to Messrs A. Wulff & Co., 6, King's Road, Shanghai, mentioning this paper, and they will send free of charge, a Booklet, dealing with sore throat, and written by a London physician.

SIX POWERS' LOAN TO CHINA.

"THE TIMES" ON THE SITUATION.

LONDON, March 8.
"The Times," in discussing the "hitch" regarding the Chinese loan, states that "it does not doubt, that the understanding may be adjustable, and urges that the proposed control should not be allowed to extend to political objects or involve undue meddling with internal administration. The journal does not believe, also, that Yuan Shih Kai intends using the loan for aggressive purposes, and the slightest indication that it would be used, for example, to assist the Chinese who are still hovering on the eastern border line of Tibet would instantly close British pockets. The journal thinks that until proof is shown to the contrary it is reasonable to assume that China deserves help if asked, and attaches importance to the comparatively tranquil conditions in China during the past twelve months, and the prosperity of trade to Yuan Shih Kai, who has furnished a solid answer to critics by continuing to hold ground in face of the most doleful prophecies.

THE DAVIS CUP.

LONDON, March 8.
A telegram from Sydney states that Wilding, Jones and Doust have been selected to contest the Davis Cup. Brookes will be unable to go. The Association are arranging to play the preliminary matches against the United States in England.

35,000 TURKS SURRENDER.

Mr. J. J. Bryan, the future Secretary of State for the United States, in response to a request to outline his foreign policy quoted his Indianapolis speech of 1900, in which he pictured the ideal republic standing erect while the empires around were groaning under the burden of armaments. THE MIDLAND RAILWAY TROUBLE.

STRIKE AVERTED.

LONDON, March 8.
The Midland Railway states that the position has been changed by Richardson's recent statements, which have made it clear that he had no intention willfully to disobey orders. Consequently the Company has confirmed its offer to reinstate him, and as they recognise that under the present regulations there is a possibility of an employee suffering injustice they have given instructions for a careful consideration and revision of the regulations to meet this point. The Company's reply is regarded as removing all possibility of a strike.

THE FRENCH ARMY.

ANIMATED DEBATES.

LONDON, March 7.
The Triennium Military Service Bill was introduced in the French Chamber on Thursday. Members of the "Atrium" Left noisily interrupted the speech of the Minister for War, and a scene of much confusion followed. The President tried for a long time to restore order, but without avail. The Bill was subsequently referred to Committee. The additional provisions are eleven years' service with the active reserve and fourteen years with the territorial reserve. This means a permanent increase of 160,000 on the peace footing of the army.

SUMMARY ACTION.

A message from Paris says that the Army Committee of the Chamber of Deputies, influenced chiefly by the Socialists, M.M. Jaures and Aynegneur, disregarded the express wish of the War Minister and their own Chairman that they should first examine the Triennium Bill, and decided to discuss the Bill for the extraordinary credits of 500,000,000 francs.

THE ROMANOFF TERCENTENARY.

CELEBRATIONS THROUGHOUT RUSSIA.

LONDON, March 7.
Thursday was the principal day in the Romanoff celebrations at St. Petersburg. Brilliant sunshine favoured the occasion, and the magnificent decorations looked imposing. Troops marched through the streets, there was a great display of flags, and bells were ringing everywhere. Dense crowds assembled and cheered their Majesties as they drove from the Winter Palace towards the Cathedral of Saint Peter and Saint Paul to attend the Te Deum. A Cossack carried the Tsarevitch into the Cathedral. He was able to sit and to stand, but instead of kneeling he stood. After the ceremony artillery salutes were fired. Their Majesties on returning received an ovation, the crowds everywhere singing the National Anthem. Picturesque holiday-makers, many peasants being in their sheepskins, were a feature of the streets. A message from St. Petersburg states that the celebrations of the Tercentenary of the Romanoff family are universal throughout the Empire, and that there is no discord anywhere.

The speech mentions that assent has been given to the India Government Act and a number of domestic reforms, from which beneficial results are anticipated.

CORRESPONDENCE.

CHURCH FEDERATION.

(To the Editor of the "CHINA MAIL.")
Sir—We are living in an age of organization and confederation. Large commercial enterprises unite together for the sake of controlling trade and amassing wealth. In America they have the Beef Trust, the Oil Trust, Tobacco Trust, Liquor Trust, and many other trusts. On the other hand we see the labouring classes organized into Federations of working men, united guilds, etc. In recent years there has been inaugurated a world-wide movement for church federation. There are Federations of Catholic Societies, Federations of Protestant Churches, Christian Councils, etc. What is the one object of all these organizations? They confederate for the sake of power. With their combined strength they hope to triumph over all opposition. What is the result of these federations in the commercial world? Almost invariably the great mass of common people and the poor are compelled to purchase the necessities of life at an exorbitant price, thus augmenting the already excessive wealth of the rich and increasing the suffering and poverty of the poor. By confederating they obtain control of the markets, prevent competition, fix their own prices, and compel people to pay their prices, or go without the commodities of common consumption? What has always been the result of the confederation of religious organizations? What will be the outcome of the present world-wide movement for church federation? Already they are using their combined numerical strength as a lever by which they demand nations to pass partisan laws and grant special privileges, forcing the minority not only to yield obedience to the majority in matters of conscience, but actually to contribute by taxation to the support of that which the few believe to be wrong. It is in this way that men and women are deprived of their religious liberty. The majority are not always right. The majority of the people in China are idolaters. What Christian man would wish to be compelled to worship idols, or to contribute to their support? A law compelling him to do so, would by him be regarded as most unjust. If the Federation of the Churches in China should gain sufficient numbers and strength, would it not be equally unjust for them to secure the passage of special laws compelling those who do not believe in Christianity to conform to Christian usages and support Christian institutions? Any fair minded person must say that it would be equally unjust.

While it is a recognized principle in the government of all free nations that the majority should rule, yet the minority have certain rights which the majority must respect, else the government ceases to be a free government and becomes a despotism.

We hear much talk in these days about church union. The prayer of Christ that the disciples might be one, is often quoted to show that the churches should unite. Many good people, even among those who are not professed Christians, look upon the church federation movement as a rational plan. "Why," say they, "should there be so many denominations? Why should they not unite?" To all who take this view the writer begs to ask a few questions. Upon what terms did the worshippers of God—Pharisees and Christians—confederate in the days of the apostles? Only on condition that the Pharisees became Christians. When the Jewish leaders held their councils and tried to compel the Christians to stop preaching Christ, what was Peter's answer? "We ought to obey God rather than man." Acts 5: 29.

What was the object of the councils of the early Christian era? Was it not to promote church union? What did they finally decide to be the only means of securing church unity? That the minority must be forced to accede to the opinions of the majority, that schismatics must be stamped out by force, that heretics must give up their heresy (2) or suffer the consequences. What followed? The "dark ages" when thousands of people rather to die than give up that which they believed to be right. What will be the final outcome of the present world-wide church federation movement? Let Roman history answer.

Yours sincerely,
E. H. WILKINSON.

Y. M. C. A. CONCERT.

A Musical Success.

CHRISTY MINSTREL ENTERTAINMENT.

In Hongkong, as in London, there has been an interesting revival of the old Christy Minstrel performance, and last night at the Theatre Royal a very large audience evinced much pleasure in hearing once again the rattle of the bones and the bang and clatter of the tambourine. The occasion was the annual concert of the Y.M.C.A. in Hongkong and the musical members and friends of the association who assisted succeeded in placing before the public one of the best entertainments of the present season. Pride of place in the programme must be given to the Christy Minstrel entertainment which formed the second part. The Interlocutor was Mr. Bart Webb, who has acted as stage manager in the short time that the troupe had to rehearse. With Mr. Higginbotham as secretary, and an enthusiastic company to support him, Mr. Webb succeeded in placing before the audience, which included H. E. the Governor and Lady May, a most pleasing entertainment. The musical numbers were nicely varied, and comprised many old plantation melodies as well as up-to-date "coon songs." The refrains of the former were beautifully harmonised by the well-balanced chorus. The latter were all capital, and the quartet which sang comprised four well-blended voices. The choruses of the songs were hourly taken up by the company, and this part of the entertainment went with such a swing that it seemed all too short. The jokes of the comedians and their antics, which were supervised by Mr. Webb, were (lamentably) Ridd and Ralph (buses) are to be complimented for the splendid work that they put in. The principal part of the miscellaneous programme was contributed by the or-chores of H.M.S. Minotaur. Their selections were well chosen and were listened to very appreciably by the large audience. The opportunities afforded the Hongkong public of hearing good orchestral music are very limited, and this part of the evening's entertainment was for this reason enjoyed all the more. Mr. Deuman Fuller gave a masterly rendering of Mendelssohn's "Caprice Brilliant" for piano-forte and orchestra, his interpretation being artistic and his technique exceeding that of a professional. The solo number by Mrs. Goldsmith and Miss White were very pleasingly sung, and in the duet "Watchman, what of the night?" Mr. W. B. Cawsey and Mr. R. K. White, who both have voices of good quality, were very successful. Mr. J. W. White supplied the pianoforte accompaniment to this part of the entertainment. Mr. M. D. Silas, who performed a similar office to the Minotaur, assisted in no small measure in the success they achieved. The members of the Minstrel Troupe were the following:—

Interlocutor, Mr. B. Webb, Comedians, Messrs P. J. West, F. O. Kidd, F. A. Biden and H. Ralph. Chorists, Messrs J. Allen, A. S. Kempthorne, W. Brown, L. Le Breton, S. Gray, J. Smith, C. J.
